Re: Claims 003560 -3 inclusive, Bourassa & Kelley

Dear Sir,

The enclosed letters received from the Trustee generate such a rage in me that I find it hard to be civil about their contents. I personally fronted all the cash for the claims involved and, after at least 8 years, we now get this brush off from the Trustee because we are from Canada! We are flabbergasted and totally affronted by this ridiculous action of the Trustee.

International Heritage, Inc. pulled all the strings for the entire company and it was the North Carolina attorney general who pulled the plug on the entire organization leaving us poor creditors out in the cold. Because we are across the border should not matter one iota due to the free trade agreement between our two countries.

Then the extra kicker is to ask us to attend a hearing in North Carolina with less than a month's notice and we are thousands of miles away. What a lovely legal maneuver to negate any possibility for the creditor. "The last refuge of a scoundrel" is the only thing that continues to reverberate in our mind as we incredulously read these onerous documents.

If this kind of action is allowed by the US courts, you truly have no decency, after allowing the lawyers to whittle away at the Directors and Officers insurance coverage with impunity while leaving hundreds of legitimate creditors on the sidelines.

The attached letters are a complete and utter disgrace.

Most sincerely,

Al Bourassa
